

In-Custody Death of Robert Dziekanski

A timeline

October 14, 2007: In-Custody Death of Robert Dziekanski at YVR.

October 15, 2007: CPC Independent Observer Program engaged.

November 8, 2007: CPC launches a Chair-initiated Complaint into the conduct of the RCMP members involved in the arrest of Mr. Robert Dziekanski at the Vancouver International Airport on October 14, 2007 (Dziekanski).

November 20, 2007: Public Safety Minister Stockwell Day requests that the CPC undertake a review of RCMP TASER® protocols.

February 2008: Braidwood Inquiry begins.

June 2008: CPC releases Final Report on RCMP TASER® protocols. This report includes 22 recommendations for immediate implementation.

December 2008: The BC Criminal Justice Branch announced that it would not approve charges against the RCMP members involved in Robert Dziekanski's death.

July 2009: Braidwood Inquiry releases report on the use of the TASER® in British Columbia and makes 19 recommendations to the provincial government regarding its appropriate use by law enforcement agencies in the province.

October 16, 2009: CPC submits Report into Chair-initiated Complaint & Public Interest Investigation (Dziekanski) to RCMP.

December 8, 2009: CPC publicly releases Report into Chair-initiated Complaint & Public Interest Investigation (Dziekanski).

June 18, 2010: Braidwood Inquiry releases final report

December 20, 2010: CPC receives the RCMP Commissioner's Notice (RCMP Response to the October 16, 2009 report).

January 14, 2011: The Commission followed up with the RCMP to determine what action, if any, had been or would be taken to address the recommendations not referenced in the Commissioner's Notice.

January 19, 2011: RCMP provided a formal response to the CPC addressing all outstanding recommendations

February 10, 2011: CPC Chair publicly releases his final report.